BEAU SOLEIL avec MICHAEL DOUCET

2011 OffBeat Best of the Beat Award Nominee for Best Cajun Artist (after an amazing 14 previous wins, including last year). "The Best Cajun Band in the World" - Garrison Keillor, Prairie Home Companion

Saturday, July 2, 2011 7 PM

SALINE FIDDLERS

America's premier youth fiddling show-band. They blend traditional fiddle tunes with a philharmonic size wave of sound. (Note the Saturday date, due to Egg Harbor's Independence Day fireworks the next evening.)

Sunday, July 10, 2011 7 PM

TAJ WEEKES & ADOWA

Taj Weekes and Adowa unite a true social consciousness with an unforgettable reggae groove. Blending in elements of acoustic roots rock and afro-folk simplicity, the band's vibrant sound defies genre and has garnered critical acclaim and a wide audience across the globe. Reggae at its best!

Sunday, July 17, 2011 7 PM

FIVE BY DESIGN

Backed by a full orchestra, their signature harmonies embrace the unforgettable melodies that are making "classy cool again" . . . one song at a time.

Sunday, July 24, 2011 7 PM

100% NATURAL

A capella, Blues & Gospel: the style of 100% Natural covers many aspects of music - Doo Wop, Rhythm & Blues, Rock, Jazz, Contemporary, and Gospel. From their on-stage style to their interaction with the crowds, their performance leaves you feeling that you were part of the entire show.

Sunday, July 31, 2011 7 PM

HARRY MANX

"Mysticssippi" blues man Harry has been called an essential link between the music of east and west, creating musical short stories that wed the traditions of the blues with the depth of the classical Indian reggae.

Sunday, August 7, 2011 7 PM

SHOUT SISTER SHOUT

The quintet is a tribute to the smoky, sophisticated sounds of the 1930's and 40's jazz with plenty of influences from Cole Porter, Ella Fitzgerald, Billy Holiday, and the Nat King Cole Trio.

Sunday, August 14, 2011 7 PM

THE BEST OF BIG TOP CHAUTAUQUA

Chautauqua's original musicals capture the essence of living in the Midwest through original music, stories, and large screen historic images, with songs about the Great Lakes, the people, and the land.
